President’s Message

Welcome to each of you to our FFCCHA 25th Anniversary Conference!

FFCCHA members, early child care professionals, sponsors, exhibitors, agency staff and trainers from Early Head Start, Early Learning Coalitions, Florida Office of Early Learning and many more! It is a pleasure to have you join us to celebrate the Florida Family Child Care Home Association’s 25th Anniversary annual conference, at the Embassy Suites in Kissimmee, Florida.

Albert Einstein once said, “Education is not the learning of facts, but the training of the mind to think.” Thus, keep in mind, the different training experiences being offered in the wonderful workshops, will expand your leadership skills and enhance your mind. You will walk away from this conference with ideas that you can incorporate into your Family Child Care Home program for the children, parents and beyond. I encourage you to participate in listening to our amazing keynote speakers and special guests, and especially to meet, network and learn from many other family child care providers from across Florida.

We can all be a part of the ‘family’ within the Florida Family Child Care Home Association and join the Voyage of “Growing New Leaders.” A special thanks to FFCCHA Conference Coordinator, Tammy Tener and her amazing team, for planning the FFCCHA 25th Annual Conference.

Enjoy and continue Enhancing our Minds…in 2017!
Gwen Wilson, President

Mensaje de la presidencia

Les doy la bienvenida a todos los miembros de FFCCHA, profesionales de Cuidado infantil, patrocinadores, expositores, agencias y entrenadores de Early Head Start, las coliciones, la oficina de early learning de la Florida y muchos muchos más! Es un placer tenerles aquí junto a nosotros celebrando nuestro 25avo. aniversario de nuestra asociación en Embassy Suites Kissimmee, Florida.

Albert Einstein una vez dijo: “Educación no es aprender los factores, sino es entrenar la mente a pensar.” Tengan en cuenta los entrenamientos y experiencias que se estarán ofreciendo la cual expandirán sus habilidades en el liderazgo y engrandecerá su mente. Usted saldrá de esta conferencia con muchas ideas las cuales puede incorporar en su negocio de cuidado infantil para los niños, padres y demás. Yo le exhorto o le animo a que escuchan a nuestros maravillosos oradores y nuestros invitados especiales, especialmente a conocer, interactuar y aprender de muchas otras y otros proveedores de toda la Florida.

Todos podemos ser parte de una "Familia" en la asociación Florida Family Child Care Home, pueden compartir el viaje de el “Crecimiento de Nuevos Líderes.” Le doy un agradecimiento especial a la coordinadora de la conferencia, Tammy Tener, y a su gran y maravilloso equipo de trabajo por haber planificado nuestra 25ava conferencia anual.

Disfrute y continúe Engrandeciendo su Mente en el 2017!
Gwen Wilson, Presidenta de FFCCHA
Conference Tips and Hints

1. When you arrive, familiarize yourself with the hotel using the map located on page 31. Find the Exhibitors Hall (in Palms Ballroom D,E,F,G) entrance which is located just across from Magnolia C ballrooms. Lunch sandwiches and salads will be for sale on Saturday in the Exhibit Hall.

2. This is an open registration conference, meaning that you may attend the workshops of your choice. However, we do have limited spaces in some classes due to limited materials (noted in descriptions).

3. Wear your name badge ALL day at the conference – it is required for admission to workshops, General Sessions and Friday Luncheon.

4. Policy: No children under 16 are allowed in the workshops, the Friday Luncheon, the General Sessions, the Saturday night Provider Celebration with DJ after 9:00 P.M. and Sunday Keynote.

5. Network, Network, Network! If you are attending with friends, split up and attend as many workshops as possible. When you meet again as a group, you will each have something different to share. Meet new and interesting people and exchange names and phone numbers.

6. Write your name on your conference Certificate of Attendance and Program Book – just in case it gets misplaced, so it can be returned to you.

7. For any questions, just ask at the conference registration West Desk or one of the hallway greeters (wearing an orange hat). They are out there to lend a helping hand.

Enjoy your conference!       Tammy Tener, Executive Director

FRIDAY, JUNE 23

1. Early Mathematics for Early Learners: Making Sense of Sets and Numbers
   - Speakers: Cassandra Jackson, Michelle McCaleb
   - Location: Cypress 1
   - Details: This 3-hour instructor-led training is designed for preschool teachers and directors who work with children ages 3-5. Participants will gain early math knowledge and practical information about how to structure the classroom environment and plan activities to integrate math concepts and skills throughout the learning day. This training focuses on the number sense standards outlined in the Florida Early Learning and Developmental Standards for Four-Year-Olds and the importance of using a developmental progression when teaching math throughout the day. Prior online registration required through the Department of Children and Families (DCF) Child Care Training System Limit 20

2. Learning to Be the Boss of Me: Supporting Executive Functions in the Preschool Classroom
   - Speaker: Suzanne Adinolfi
   - Location: Cypress 2
   - Details: Executive function and self-regulation skills are the mental processes that enable us to plan, focus attention, remember instructions, and juggle multiple tasks successfully. This interactive presentation will introduce participants to developmentally appropriate strategies designed to support and enhance these critical skills.

3. ¡La Ciencia Puede Ser Divertida!
   - Speaker: Mariel Rivera
   - Location: Cypress 3
   - Details: Join us as we discover different possibilities in your daily routine through science and find various resources for your home and planning.

4. Professionally Preparing for Growth: Interviewing and Hiring the Right Member for Your Team
   - Speaker: Cynthia Krosky
   - Location: Cypress 4
   - Details: Hiring the right person in any business is important, but it is even more important when your home and business are one. We will identify methods for getting applicants and then examine tools that can be used to help you determine who you should interview and how you should interview them. Getting the person that best fits your needs and the needs of the families is vital.

5. What is the BPICE?
   - Speaker: Lisette Levy, Ph.D.
   - Location: Cypress 5
   - Details: The BPICE is a self-assessment tool that will assist FCC home providers in self-identifying areas of strength and priorities regarding inclusive best practices and assist in developing a plan to improve the quality of services, instruction and support to all young children and families.

6. Sensory Solutions for Infants & Toddlers
   - Speaker: Cecilia Cruse
   - Location: Magnolia A
   - Details: Are you struggling with a toddler who is a picky eater? Wonder why that fussy baby just can’t ever seem to settle down? What about that preschooler who has a meltdown when coming or going? Many children, including babies born prematurely, along the autism spectrum, and/or those with developmental disabilities, face multiple challenges in an early childhood setting with sometimes-overwhelming demands on their sensory systems. Review the basic concepts of good sensory processing as part of normal growth and development. Explore sensory strategies to help with familiar challenges, including fussy infants, cautious slow-milestone babies, picky eaters, super sensitive tots and more!

7. Let’s Cook and Learn Together
   - Speaker: Karen Goldman
   - Location: Magnolia B
   - Details: Join us as we incorporate healthy eating practices with the Florida Early Learning and Developmental Standards for Four Year Old’s to create cooking experiences that will enhance your lesson planning and curriculum.

8. What’s New at the Department of Children and Families?
   - Speakers: Linda Halpin, Dinah Davis
   - Location: Magnolia C
   - Details: During this presentation, the new School Readiness, new Background Screening requirements, and other updates will be discussed, as well as how these new requirements affect family child care homes.
9. Intentionally Extreme and Extremely Intentional Classroom Environment Makeover - Preschool Edition
Tara Huls, Wendee Hooker-Taylor Cypress 2
Learn about the variety of classroom styles and organizational structures inspired by the Reggio Emilia approach. Setting up the classroom in a way that is visually interesting (not chaotic), meaningful, and INTENTIONAL can improve children's learning and the teacher's experience facilitating learning throughout the year.

10. Familias Abordo
Frances Morales Cypress 3
Las familias deben participar en el aprendizaje de sus hijos y hacer de esto un puente hacia el éxito en la vida. La participación efectiva de las familias se produce cuando existe una verdadera asociación entre las escuelas, los cuidados de cuidado infantil y las familias. La creación de esa asociación especialmente en el campo de las actividades académicas es lo que funciona para el logro de los estudiantes.

11. The Business of Marketing Your Business: Marketing 101
Cynthia Krosky Cypress 4
Providing child care is a business that needs to be run like a business. Understand how to continually brand your business for future referrals. Discuss tools and strategies for marketing your business as well as understanding the power of customer service to keep your business growing.

12. STEAM Movement, Music, & Fun
Debby Mitchell Cypress 5
Young children love and need to move. Music and movement can be used to help children learn while having fun! Experience “Number Monster,” “Be a Civil Engineer,” “Move to Letters of the Alphabet,” “Green, Yellow, Red,” “Sounds of Our Letters,” and more!

22. Early Learning Florida: Cultivating a Community of Practitioners through an Online Professional Development
Raquel Diaz, Lourdes Santiago-Poventud, Lucianna Grasso, Al Andino Cypress 1
Early Learning Florida is a comprehensive professional development system that helps early childhood professionals gain the knowledge and skills they need to transform the care and education they provide to young children. Online courses are job-embedded and invite practitioners to reflect on their practice. Through interactive protocols, explore highly effective professional development and discover how Early Learning Florida transforms instructional practices that impact quality in FCC Homes and help ensure that practitioners earn mastery in their courses.

23. New Directions in Curriculum: Intentional Weekly Planning
Donna Fowler Cypress 2
Define intentional planning for young children. Explain how the “Observe, Reflect and Respond” strategy supports all children’s development and learning, determine how curricular objectives and assessment can support individualized instruction, and plan experiences that include family members and other community resources.

24. Aulas Saludables – Manteniendo la Participación Eficaz del Maestro
Ana Gonzalez Cypress 3
El apoyar a niños afectados por trauma es trabajo arduo y altamente gratificante. Como educadores nos esforzamos en la aplicación de mejores prácticas. Las investigaciones muestran que el clima positivo (las relaciones interpersonales y el ambiente educativo seguro) produce resultados positivos. Este taller interactivo (música/movimiento) presenta estrategias prácticas para mantener la participación eficaz del maestro al trabajar con esta población.

25. I have an Employee! Now what?
Karan Hiester Cypress 4
You’re running your own business and you’re busier than ever! You may already have a substitute or someone working part-time or you may want to hire someone to help while you run errands, go to appointments, or attend meetings and trainings. Are you interested in how an employee handbook supports both employer and employee? Explore different policies, expectations, rules and regulations in creating an Employee Handbook for your family child care home.

26. Every Moment is a Teachable Moment
Kristy Pinkney Cypress 5
Learn how to make every moment a teachable moment when working with infants, toddlers, and twos. Come learn engaging ways to teach using music, sign language, and sensory play. Touch, see, feel, and play your way into a deeper understanding of how young children learn best and the part you play in their development.

27. Power to the Profession: Implications for Family Child Care
Bill Hudson Magnolia A
The Power to the Profession initiative seeks to create the foundations of a new professional designation within the field of early care and education. The initiative is sponsored by NAEYC and is being directed by a 15-member task force, which includes NAFCC as the voice for family child care. Learn more about the movement to “professionalize” the workforce, what are the reasons for initiative, how the initiative could affect FCC providers, and how FCC providers can ensure their voices are heard.

28. Using the CLASS™ Measure in FCC Homes
Linda Hockenberry Magnolia B
Explore resources designed to increase the effectiveness of the interactions that matter - those that increase children’s learning and development. An overview of the Classroom Assessment Scoring System™ (CLASS) observation instrument will be presented along with a discussion about using the CLASS™ Measure in Family Child Care Homes.

29. KidVision Prek: Virtual Field Trip to Learn & Teach Standards for Preschoolers
Penny Bernath Magnolia C

CITY OF ORLANDO

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Florida Family Child Care Home Association (FFCCHA) is recognizing family child care providers on June 24, 2017; and

WHEREAS, family child care is the preferred choice of child care by the majority of working parents in the United States for their infants and toddlers; and

WHEREAS, by calling attention to the importance of high-quality early care and learning services for all children and families in our state, we hope to improve the quality and availability of such services; and

WHEREAS, family child care providers care for infants, toddlers, preschoolers and before and after school-agers in their home for approximately 60 hours per week; and

WHEREAS, the future of our state and nation depends on the quality of the early childhood experiences provided to young children today; and

WHEREAS, it takes a special person to work in this field and their contribution to our children’s future is worthy of the highest respect; and

WHEREAS, Family Child Care Providers will be honored by the Florida Family Child Care Home Association on June 24, 2017, during their 25th Anniversary Conference "Enhancing our Minds in 2017";

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Buddy Dyer, Mayor of the City of Orlando, hereby do proclaim Saturday, June 24, 2017, as

“Family Child Care Provider Day”

in the City of Orlando.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto have set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Orlando to be affixed this 24th day of June 2017.

Buddy Dyer
MAYOR
30. Healing Classrooms - Managing Effective Teacher Participation
Ana Gonzalez  Cypress 1
Supporting children affected by trauma is arduous and highly rewarding work. As educators, we strive for best practices. Research shows that building relationships and providing safe educational environments yield positive results. This highly interactive workshop with music and movement presents practical techniques for maintaining effective teacher participation when working with young children.

31. Creating the Vision for a Family Child Care Home Business
Tasheba Berry-McLaren  Cypress 2
Learn about a visual tool that providers can use as inspiration for their journey as a family child care home, through a business plan, marketing strategies and family engagement.

32. Desarrollo del Lenguaje y el Pensamiento en Niños de 2-4 años de edad
Dr. Carmen A. Medrano y Maria Barrera  Cypress 3
En este taller se presentará una investigación realizada en seis (6) Family Child Care Homes con niños de 2-4 años. Se explicará los resultados de como se logró que los niños ampliaran su vocabulario por medio del uso de literatura infantil de alta calidad, desarrolla su pensamiento y haciéndolo visible.

33. School-agers are Cool-agers!
Sandy Governor  Cypress 4
Wonder why your smoothly running family child care home can become chaotic when the school-agers arrive each afternoon? Come learn some helpful hints from a 35+ year veteran of school-age care.

34. Reading Through Trash
Adrienne Donaldson  Cypress 5
Learn how to recycle trash items into pre-reading and reading materials to spark a love and appetite for reading. Find out many “cool” ideas to make reading interactive, exciting and fun! Also, learn how to get the parents involved in reading activities too.

35. Totally Tods
Maryann “Mar.” Harman  Magnolia A
Toddlers enjoy music, too; but they have special needs. Many times, materials are too old for them. Learn about developmentally appropriate activities and materials for toddlers as well as their value in their development.

36. Hands-on with SumBlox, a New Stem Tool
David Skaggs  Magnolia B
Learn about an innovative approach to teaching early mathematics through tangible number blocks. Each number block scales in height to represent its value. This simple system for visual comparisons creates a tangible number line where kids can explore numeracy concepts while playing fun games and building structures.

Kiki Peters, Lisa Adams  Magnolia C
Find out about the various scholarship opportunities available for family child care home providers. Learn about information on possible salary supplements for eligible family child care home providers and staff members once certain levels of education have been attained. Attendees will be able to identify how best to meet their educational and professional goals with the help of the T.E.A.C.H. Scholarship® Program and determine if salary supplements are available too via the Child Care WAGES® program.

SESSION: 7
GENERAL SESSION KEYNOTE
Accredited Provider Recognition
9:45 - 11:15 AM

38. How Diet and Dietary Habits Negatively Impact Children’s Health
Julie Wei, MD  Magnolia Ballroom
This presentation will include the clinical practice and observations of how current dietary habits of children, specifically excessive sugar sweetened beverages and excessive dairy, as well as poor eating habits, have led to many ENT and other health issues in otherwise medically healthy children.

Julie Wei, MD - is a pediatric Otolaryngologist who serves as the Surgeon-in-Chief and Division Chief of Otolaryngology/Audiology at the Nemours Children’s Hospital in Orlando and a professor at the UCF School of Medicine. She made a personal commitment to increasing health and nutrition literacy in her patient families. By carefully incorporating dietary habits, many symptoms go away without need for medication or surgeries. She has coined “the Milk and Cookie disease” and is author of the book, “A Healthier Wei.” Visit ahealthierwei.com and don’t miss her enlightening and entertaining Keynote Session #38.
SESSION 8:
75 MINUTE WORKSHOPS
12:15 - 1:30 PM

39. Individualizing Is All About Intentional Teaching
Lillian McCuen - Cypress 1
High quality programs help every child and family feel like they belong. Inclusion means that the care and education of all children, with and without disabilities, takes place in everyday routines, activities, and places. Assistive Technology (AT) tools are embedded within the routines and activities of those settings. Children are not only present, but participate as active social members of their peer groups and are valuable members of their families and communities. Learn about individualizing for all children in your program by participating in intentional planning for the children.

40. Creating Meaningful Routines and Experiences for Infants, Toddlers, Twos
Donna Fowler - Cypress 2
Evaluate the importance of nurturing routines and meaningful experiences. Learn how your own views influence the ways you carry out routines and discuss how specific daily routines and experiences can be used to support children’s development and learning.

41. Manejando mi Negocio, parte B
Yorislay Matos y Juana Rodriguez - Cypress 3
Las proveedoras aprenderan la forma mas adecuada de decirles a sus empleados o asistentes cuales son sus responsabilidades u obligaciones. El porque se debe de trabajar de cierta manera en el cuidado infantil de niños.

42. Expulsion Policies and Procedures: Overview of Policy & Best Practices
Rebecca Anmott - Cypress 4
Find out about recent research surrounding the occurrence and effects of expulsion during the early childhood years. Learn about federal and state policies regarding the removal of children from early childhood settings and information regarding current requirements for School Readiness programs to establish policies regarding expulsion of children in care. Discover best practices regarding the social-emotional development of young children and the use of positive behavior interventions as an alternative to expulsions and suspension. Sample policies and instruction will be given on how to develop an expulsion policy for your program based on current best practice and available resources.

43. All About NAFCC Accreditation
Arleen Lambert - Cypress 5
Gain a clear depiction of the Anatomy of NAFCC Accreditation. The accreditation process will help providers to set professional goals using the NAFCC Quality Standards that examine all aspects of your family child care program to reach and maintain high-quality and continuity of care.

44. Supporting Moms & Babies:
Understanding Breastfeeding Barriers for Working Moms
Samantha Staley, Grace Peterson - Magnolia A
Learn the importance of breastfeeding and how the family child care provider has a unique and significant opportunity to support breastfeeding families to be successful in their efforts.

45. How to Help Your Child Develop Physical Skills
Dr. Steve Sanders - Magnolia B
Learn about skill themes, movement concepts and instructional strategies used with preschool children. This is an activity session with participants involved in movement as well as discussion related to the physical skill development model.

46. Around the World in 80+ Children’s Books
Dawn-Harvey Espinoza - Magnolia C
Early education instructors can help children develop a foundation of respect and inclusion by using literacy that establishes a connection for cultural diversity. Discover literacy activities to integrate cultural responsive teaching. Learn how to choose children’s books to plan learning experiences for young children; thus, exploring an appreciation for diversity.

$10 Lunches for Sale in the Exhibit Hall
- Ham Sandwich/Chips/Drink
- Turkey Sandwich/Chips/Drink
- Chicken Caesar Salad/Drink

Steve Sanders - is a professor at the University of South Florida where he prepares physical education teachers and conducts research related to curriculum and instruction in early childhood physical activity. His recent book series “Moving Matters,” outlines for parents of infants, toddlers, and preschoolers a variety of fun physical skills to become physically active and healthy throughout life. Learn strategies for physical skill development in workshop #45 and in his Closing Keynote #55
47. Are you a Coach or a Referee? Proactive Strategies for Reducing Challenging Behavior
Angela Loring          Cypress 1
Reduce chaos and create a calm and productive environment where you and your children can thrive. Learn some simple, effective strategies that address current behavioral issues as well as help reduce challenging behaviors before they begin. Emphasis is on teaching essential life skills for social, emotional, and academic success.

48. Supporting Early Mathematical Learning in The Creative Curriculum for Family Child Care
Donna Fowler          Cypress 2
Become familiar with the research related to how children learn mathematical concepts. Examine the components of mathematics that form the basis of instruction and explore ways to incorporate developmentally appropriate mathematics activities in meaningful ways throughout the day.

51. Going Beyond Literacy
Robin Dean          Cypress 5
Books can take us to many different thoughts and activities associated with them. Learn how to springboard off a book into math, science, motor activities, and social skills. A variety of books will be presented with possible activities.

52. Breast Feeding Friendly Family Child Care Homes
Krista Schoen, Esther March-Singleton   Magnolia A
The Florida Breastfeeding Coalition (FBC), in collaboration with the Florida Department of Health (DOH) offers awards to child care providers that are breastfeeding friendly. Find out how you can become a Breastfeeding Friendly Child Care Designation Program.

53. Protect and Grow Your Dreams
Darlene Rivers, Deidra Johnson         Magnolia B
More than 80% of small businesses are self-employed individuals. However, about 50% of small businesses fail in the first four years. This session will help you unveil why you started your business, what your dreams are, and discover ways to protect and grow your business through personal development, goal setting and understanding your rights.

54. Small Talk: Strategies to Improve Instructional Support in the Classroom
Stephanie Miller      Magnolia C
Learn the difference between questioning for assessment and questioning to facilitate learning. Find out why open-ended questions are vital to early learning. Learn skills related to Instructional Support (i.e. Concept Development, Quality of Feedback, and Language Modeling) and strategies to help make these new skills fit into their FCC home. While this presentation is based on dimensions within the CLASS Observational Assessment Tool, a knowledge of CLASS is not needed to benefit from this workshop.

55. MOVING MATTERS: The Importance of Developing Physical Skills at an Early Age
Dr. Steve Sanders   Magnolia Ballroom ABC
For young children, learning comes from movement and physical activity and must be fun! Learn the importance of physical activity and development of physical skills in infants, toddlers, and preschoolers. Find out what the physical activity curriculum looks like for these young age groups. Find out practical examples of how parents, teachers, and child care providers can assist young children in development of basic motor skills. Information on motor development along with where to obtain and how to construct developmentally appropriate physical activity equipment is also included. Grand Prizes!!!

Turn in your completed Evaluation Form at the end of Closing Keynote for a chance to win $100 cash!

As other companies selling child care insurance have come and gone, Florida Day Care Insurance (FDCI) remains committed to helping those in need obtain affordable, reliable insurance for your protection.

FDCI offers a variety of liability limits ranging from $300,000 to $1 million with sexual molestation and accident coverage included, which can be purchased same-day online.

FDCI promises 3 C’s; “Coverage, Compliance, & Customer Service.” Our partnership with Assure Child Care makes insurance “Provider Friendly” from starting a new policy to renewal. For complete information, call 727-461-4300 or toll free 800-359-4300. Para información en español, por favor llame al número 855-818-KIDS (5437). Discounts and easy pay plans are available.

Children are our future. Let us help you protect them while protecting you at the same time.
